Legendz Story

A Legendz Story

It has been told as a legendary story
Let's reveal the true story of Legendz

レジェンズの存在

Forgotten long ago, creatures called Legendz coexisted with humans on Earth. Legendz, who had more intelligence and abilities than humans, were sometimes worshipped by them as "gods" and sometimes feared by them as "demons."

the Legendz of existence

レジェンズとサーガ

Legendz with Saga

Some humans were able to communicate with Legendz. People called them "saga" in awe as they understood Legendz. With this validation, the saga was able to use the Talispod.

レジェンズウォー

When humans, the masters of civilization, begin to fear Legendz, the world-destroying Demon King Jabberwock is born. To defeat the Demon King, the saga and Legendz must throw down in a final battle called Legendz War, a battle involving all living beings that has continued since ancient times.

characteristics of non-attribute

To set a non attribute enviroment you will need to set the temperature to 0 degrees and set the humidity to 50. You wont encounter enemies in this enviroment but you also wont grow in any stats.

① hunger

If you are in a non attribute enviroment every 60 minutes your hunger will decrease after losing 4 hunger your legendz will die after 6 hours. so dont leave your legendz.

② Recover 1|2 hp

During regular enviroment training you will increase or decrease your hp periodically in the non-attribute enviroment this doesn't happen. However, you will gain back half your max hp everyy 60 minutes.

③ Increase reborn gauge

In normal enviroment training you will lose reborn gauge by 1 every 30 minutes but in the non-attribute zone you will gain 1 every 60 minutes.

use of cost (training) crystals

① Non attribute zone and full hp recovery

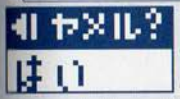
In the non attribute zone if you use a cost (training) crystal you will completely restore your legendz HP.

② Use cost (training) crystals to repel enemies

By using a cost (training) crystal in normal enviroments you will avoid enemy encounters allowing you to raise your stats without fighting.

Button operations during enviromental training

enter button



If you select the set enviroment command while in a training enviroment you will be asked if you want to leave. はい is yes. selecting no (いいえ) will allow you to change the current enviroment.

select button

By using the select button in a set enviroment your legendz will search the area. This will usually initiate a battle but there is a 25% chance of finding an item.

cancel button

By using the select button in an enviroment your legendz will tell how it's doing. you can then cycle the menu options.

legendz sleep

Legendz sleep, even if you wake it up it will fall back asleep.

① Legendz sleep at a fixed time
② If you wake them up they will fall asleep after 5 minutes.
③ Hp and stats do not increase during sleep.

The end of a Legendz

Once a legendz reaches the end of it's life it will die and return to a crystal. When reborn it will keep its name and moves but it's stats will return to it's base. Each attributes lifespans differ, see the diagram on the right for reference.

Additional lifespan details

When legendz are sleeping or out of the talispod the lifespan will not decrease. hey can also die from hunger.
